THE CANDIDATES.

The re-nomination of Hon. J. G. Cannon, by the Republicans of this district, is an event that was expected by everybody. His faithful services in Congress have fairly entitled him to this honor. Indeed, a failure to return him to Congress at this time would be a gross injustice to one of the most efficient and industrious members of the House of Representatives. It is a fact that no district in Illinois is more ably TILDEN'S POLITICAL PORTRAIT. izen soldier wh represented than ours, and that Mr. Cannon will be triumphantly re-elected is already a certainty.

It is not necessary for us to say anything in commendation of Mr. Moffett, who was nominated for member of the Board of Equalization, as he is well and favorably known to all our people. Possessed of the soundest judgment, and thoroughly conversant with the duties of the board, his nomination is one eminently fit to be made. He was not a candidate for the nomination, and has probably not yet heard of the fact. hat he has been placed on the ticket.

A GOOD suit of broadcloth may alter the appearance of a rescal, but it cannot change his character. Disguising Democracy under golden promises may please the eye and tickle the ear, but it remains the same old power, deceptive, langerous and unworthy of public confidezos.

AFTER the election Samuel J. Tilden will be a wiser and poerer man. His surplus millions can no more change the man of any sagacity. He was in a po-sition to know it and to ascertain it. determination of the American people to reject Democracy than the wind out of a bellows can change the course of the trade winds. Our advice to Samuel is, "save your money and purchase a

AN OLD GENTLEMAN ROBBED.

On Monday night by the 11 o'clock train from St. Louis, there arrived at the depot in this city, an elderly gentleman, the father-in-law of Esq. Hopson, of Macon. After he left the train at a hotel, when a couple of men who were strangers to him, offered their services to conduct him to the best hotel in town. As he could not go to Macon that night, he consented to accompany them. The men led the old gentlemen into a day, to get a bill from the banking by-place where one took him by the arms, and the other presenting a pistol to his breast, demanded his money, say ing that if he did not give it up at once he would blow him through. The dethe democrats, unmindful of that, keep mand was met as soon as possible, by the old gentleman giving him all the money he had, which was about fifteen dollars. The robbers then let their victim go, who went back to the hotel and related what had happened to him.

The police were notified and kept a sharp lookout for the fellows, and on yesterday spotted their men and arrested them. Mr. Hopson was at once notified, and this morning came up with his father-in-law, who on being taken to the calaboose where the two men were conthe fast mail trains, was presented to fined, at once recognized them as the Congress to day, and created quite a ones who had offered to conduct him to flutter among the democrats. CARL SCHURZ TO THE FRONT.

The following extract from a private letter to the New York Tribune, and published in that paper on Thursday, by Carl Schurz:

There is a striking contrast between the hard-soft money mixture in the Democratic platform and candidates and the strong, fearless assertion of moral duty in the financial paragraph of Governor Hayes' letter of acceptance. The views he expresses about the civil service form the most comprehensive, most clearly defined, and in every respect most satisfactory civil service reform programme I ever saw uttered in a few words; and that programme is accompanied by the pledge of an honest man that, if he is elected, it shall be faithfully carried out in its completeness, and that no personal ambition shall interfere with the work. Never had civil service reformers a better opportunity to fight with a chance of real streams. The energy of the service reformers a better opportunity to fight with a chance of real streams. The energy of the streams of the service reformers a service reformers a better opportunity to fight with a chance of real streams. The energy of the service reformers a service of service reformers a most clearly defined, and in every re-York Democrat, is familiar with Mr. Tilden's history. In a recent speech he thus refers to that gentleman's past transactions:

"The great capitalists claim a to the country during the civil war, Tilden's history. In a recent speech he thus refers to that gentleman's past transactions:

"The Charleston (S. C.) News replies to criticisms of its course in publishing a to the country during the civil war, Sibley, on the 6th, with a small uclosed. In ment of the Second cavalry, to escont my guide, Frank Graurd, on making a reconnoissance. When the party came, on the seventh, to a point near where the Little Big Horn debouched from the mountains, they encountered the Sioux in strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that no personal ambition is strong force and saw enough to conness, and that programme is a few words; and succeeded in making their escape, only after abandoning their animals and marching across the rugged foot hills of the Big Horn mountains. The men were cause, and not merely the success.—I cess of a candidate or party. I shall support Governor Hayes heartily and actively, and I have never felt more clearly conscious of doing the right thing for the best interests of the country.

In its comments on the letter the Tribune says :

We believe there are very few of the gentlemen who have been more conspiccously associated with Carl Schurz in the public mind in movements for political reform from 1872 down to this time who will not be found now taking substantially the same course.

Heretofore this work has been done by hand, and has been a slow and tedlous process. Mr. Friend's machine screens the sand and gravel as fast as two men can shovel it in, and by arranging the screens the sand is thrown into one pile, the roofing gravel into another, and the coarser gravel into another.
